

CATHY HEYNE

Bubblescum

Cathy Heyne started at the Kavon in November 2005 for the show "Horrorwood" and stepped into a waiter position on the Gallipoli side of the Christmas season. After repeated character changes throughout the years of 2005 and 2006, Cathy found herself in the character Bubblescum for the new 2006 show "Evil Tales in Vegas" and became a lead floor character. With her wild personality and spontaneous bursts of energy, Cathy is able to put a smile on everyone's face.

Cathy has also starred and appeared in multiple productions around Newcastle Theatre including; the sell out season of "Rent," "Shining Isle" and also recently produced the musical production of "In a Pink Tutu" at the Civic Playhouse.
