

DALLAS BIGELOW

The Master

Dallas Bigelow joined the Kavon crew in July 2005 and immediately stepped into lead male singer. Dallas created the infamous character "Inferno", as well as the "Zombie Bones." His vibrancy on the stage and the floor has made him as an inspiration to all. Dallas has proven to be an amazing actor and performer. During 2006, Dallas followed his dream for becoming an actor and went to study in Queensland at Q.U.T. To everyone's joy, he returned for the Christmas Season of 2006 in the show "Evil Tales in Vegas," where he created the new character "Voodoo" and stole the hearts of the audience once again. Whilst stepping into lead singer with Stuart Moncreiff on the Gallipoli side again hosting the Kavon's first ever all male Christmas show. Dallas also returned for the Christmas season of 2007, to work along side Stewart Moncrieff.

THE MASTER