

JOHN ANDREWS

Uncle Fester

John Andrews joined the Kavon crew when the Kavon first open in 2000 - Working behind the scenes resetting the restaurant in between shows and designing many large props; including the stage. John then started stepping in and helping with the shows when the Kavon was short till 2005 Christmas season when John sold his soul to become a permanent character and has continued ever since becoming more involved in the show every week. Shortly thereafter, John joined the boys in there infamous Full Monty dance routine and has become a well known character at the Kavon
