

KEFFA HEANEY

Pussycat

Keffa Heaney started at the Kavon in July 2007. Keffa intrinsic flair and loving nature saw her find her way into the character "Pussy Cat."

Keffa is one of the leading floor waitresses at the Kavon and is also working her way onto the stage, wowing the audience with her singing and dancing in special choreographed dances, designed by Lauren Handsaker.

She is the reason why your car keys have gone missing, your husband has lipstick on his collar, and something is clawing and your legs...
