Spiderwoman

Lauren Handsaker, choreographer and dance instructor, started at the Kavon when it first opened in 2002 as a waitress. She played a large part in the growth and professionalism of the show. Lauren has played Spiderwoman since 2003, but she shines when it comes to the dances on the stage where she spins up a web of moves that keeps every one intrigued. She also takes on the challenge of designing all the new dances performed at the Kavon, and the even bigger task of teaching the other staff. In 2007, Lauren stepped in to assistant management.
