

LUKE BAKER

Ruff Riff

Q Luke Baker started at the Kavon in September 2005 as a singer, having been presented with the challenge of taking over the role of lead singer from Shannon Geelan. Luke possessed a timid personality and played numerous characters till he found himself permanently taking the character "Ruff Riff."

His stage presence slowly grew to meet the quality of his voice and by Christmas 2005 Luke sang with Dallas Bigelow and Stuart Moncrieff in the Kavon show Horrorwood.

Then in 2006 Luke stepped up to lead male singer for the new show, "Evil Tales in Vegas". As his stage presence grew and his voice strengthened, Luke started to wow the audience and send them into a trance of sheer delight. He also took on training the vocals of some of the younger staff, inspiring them to sing.

In 2007, Luke has continued to reprise his role as Ruff Riff and as lead singer.

RUFF RIFF